

Why Take Our Course?

Prior to completing a police application form, most police applicants have already spent a tremendous amount of time, money and energy to achieve their goal. They have attended college or university, performed countless hours of volunteer work and sacrificed a great deal, all in order to become a police officer or court officer.

The application and hiring process has become a complicated and difficult undertaking. It is designed as a competition. In order to succeed, you must have a competitive advantage. Our course is designed to teach you how to systematically prepare yourself for the application, testing and interview processes. Our exclusive tools and 15 years of experience will give you the competitive advantage you need to reach your goal.

Staff

Our experienced instructors are carefully selected from the field of law enforcement. They are successful graduates of the course, who have been hired by police services.
